11. 07/26 COMMITTEE REPORT

Woollen Trails Boards Sub-Committee – Cllr J Ayres gave a brief report on the situation as it is at present. He pointed out that some of the boards had very little information whilst others had a great deal. It was suggested that we could have boards of different sizes they did not all have to be uniform in size. It was agreed to hold a short meeting for the Woollen Board Committee.

12. 07/26 Date of the next meeting and location

Monday evening, 28th September 2026 at 7.30pm, Church Hall, Penboyr

13. 07/26 COUNCILLORS' COMMENTS

1. Cllr A Thomas – i. stated that the crack on Pont Tyweli bridge was getting wider – Clerk to inform C C Hazel Evans

WOOLLEN BOARD SUB COMMITTEE

It was agreed that, given the variation in the amount of information for some of the boards, it would be a good idea to have boards of different sizes. It was also agreed to meet in September—prior to the next monthly meeting—to review the information for each board, thereby preparing the work for consideration by the full council.

The meeting ended at 9.00pm
